Swizz is New York City's only Swiss-American restaurant. We've reserved the caveau (wine cellar), to ensure direct access to a fine selection from the old and new worlds.

Enjoy unique cheese specialties in a heimelig setting and the opportunity to discuss such pressing issues as a recent Swiss Supreme Court ruling that raclette is not a cheese¹. Or simply have a good time catching up with colleagues and friends.

Seating is limited - first come first served. Your significant others are welcome! $75.00/person covers a three-course meal and wine.

Please RSVP by November 17 by filling in the attached form and sending it, along with a check made out to Mayer Brown LLP, to Mayer Brown LLP, Attn. Marianna Chen, 1675 Broadway, New York, NY 10019.

About the Swiss American Lawyers Association of Greater New York (SALA)

SALA had its inaugural meeting on March 27, 2007 at Mayer Brown LLP in New York. We meet approximately every three months and the association is quite informal for the time being. Every lawyer or jurist with a Swiss connection practicing, studying or researching in the New York area is invited to join our events. We will aim at keeping any event fees low and do not charge an annual fee.

SALA is an association for and by Swiss and U.S. lawyers who

- have regular contacts with Switzerland - whether through Swiss clients or employers or with Switzerland as a place of business or jurisdiction, and

- practice in the greater New York area
 - in private practice with US and international law firms
 - as in-house counsel with US branches or subsidiaries of Swiss companies
 - at not-for-profit organizations
 - at the diplomatic representations of Switzerland
 - at the UN

SALA also invites Swiss academics and LL.M. students at local universities.

SALA intends to give its members and supporters a forum to enable and promote

- exchanges of ideas regarding public and private Swiss, US, and international laws, rules, regulations and policies, affecting Swiss and American lawyers, their clients or their organizations, and
- collegial interaction and social opportunities.

We invite you to join us for our meetings and to participate with your own event (or other) ideas. Please circulate this invitation amongst your fellow Swiss American lawyers.

We look forward to seeing you on December 4!
